GROUPS MADE EASY

Group vacations held at Sandos Cancun are events to remember. This incredible resort is situated between the Caribbean Sea and Nichupté Lagoon, with a desirable location in the Cancun Hotel Zone. This hotel is able to cater to all sizes of groups, big and small, and each venue and amenity boasts something unique. With a personal event planner to help with every moment of your stay, your group and event will be in capable hands.

MEETINGS MADE MAGICAL

Going above and beyond the traditional meeting or incentive trip, Sandos Cancun has unbelievable locations and provides exciting perks for your group trip or convention. Just choose the location you love most, like the versatile ballroom for up to 500 people. Then, let the team of experts guide you through a hassle-free planning process to create the event you've envisioned. Your group will receive many benefits, including complimentary meeting space with basic set-up, a coffee break daily, and a 10% discount on audiovisual equipment.

WEDDINGS THAT DAZZLE

On your wedding day, you deserve breathtaking amenities at a dream location. Choose from three different wedding packages, select the ceremony location you love most, and then let Sandos' team of expert destination wedding planners guide you through the package details to make your day extra special. Whether your wedding party is made up of 20 guests or 200, this wedding team will take care of everything you need to get married in paradise. And with only one wedding per day, the experience will truly be your own.
